

2002 Legislative Survey Results

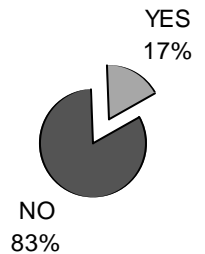

The following results from the survey were compiled from the response of more than 3,000 citizens in south central Indiana.

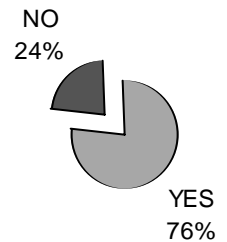

1) The O'Bannon Tax Restructuring Plan was explained on the reverse side of the survey card. When asked if the Legislature should adopt this plan as proposed, these were the results:

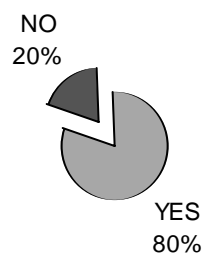

2) The O'Bannon Balanced Budget Plan was also explained on the reverse side of the survey card. When asked if the Legislature should adopt this plan as proposed, citizens' responses were this:

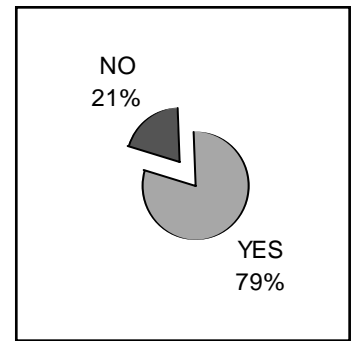

3) When asked if teachers should be granted immunity from prosecution for administering reasonable corporal punishment:

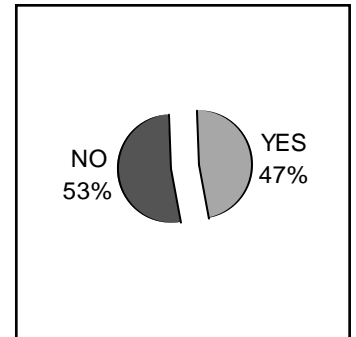

4) When asked if electricity-generating "peaking" power plants be built in Indiana provided they are subject to regulation by the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission:

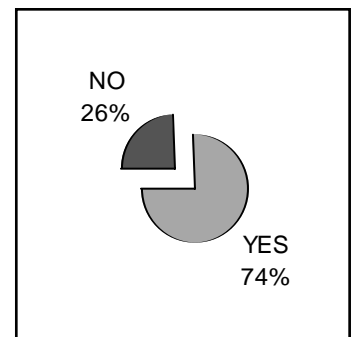

5) When asked if Indiana should require that schools begin each day with the Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence:

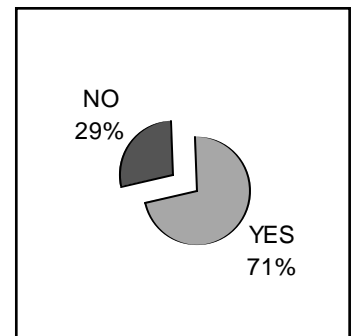

6) When asked if the state should allow local communities to install cameras near the highway and street intersections to photograph vehicles running red lights:

7) When asked if a person convicted of drunken driving should be subject to a more severe sentence if a minor was in the car at the time of arrest:

8) When asked if Indiana should restrict state funding of stem-cell research:

9) When asked if Indiana's funds from the tobacco settlement, which currently are set aside for anti-smoking and other health-related activities, should be diverted to help the state through its fiscal crisis:

